- PRYC Code of Conduct & Member Protection Policy (^Copy available on the Club's website: <https://paradiseradioyachtclub.com>)
- Racing Rules of Sailing 2021 to 2024 Amended by Appendix E Radio Sailing Rules^
- Standard Sailing Instructions^ and any Notices published by the Club Sailing Secretary when competing in any PRYC race in any fleet, and in any other sailing activities where the SSI are applicable.
- PRYC Risk Assessment. ^

I agree to:

- Participate in Club activities in good humor and a spirit of fair play.
- Assist with equipment set up and dismantling on sailing days whenever possible.
- Volunteer to assist in running PRYC hosted events at least once a year.

I acknowledge that all members taking part in Club events do so entirely at their own risk and that the Australian Radio Yachting Association Inc., the Queensland Radio Yachting Association Inc., Paradise Radio Yacht Club Inc. and any other parties involved in the organization of PRYC events disclaim any and every responsibility whatsoever for loss, damage, injury or inconvenience that might occur to persons and goods, both ashore and on the water as a consequence of participating in PRYC events.

I acknowledge the responsibility for my safety and the decision to participate or continue in events rests with me (the member or applicant).

I understand that by entering a Club event it is deemed that I accept these conditions.

NB: New member applicants must be proposed and seconded by existing members, before submitting the application & paying. Prospective new members are asked to make themselves known to the Fleet Captain of the fleet that they wish to join by attending that fleet's regular sailing days. Details on PRYC website.
